Reminders

Chaperones and students must stay together at all times regardless of grade level. This includes during sky shows. If you get separated from members of your group, alert Adler staff.

You are responsible for the safety and appropriate behavior of all students in your group throughout your time at the Adler.

Follow the schedule listed above. Arrive 10 Minutes early to any scheduled events.

Hold on to all show tickets for your group. Pass out tickets right before entering the theater.
Every student and adult seeing a show must have a ticket.

Remind students to be considerate of other visitors and of museum exhibits and displays.
